

The people of Indiana have spoken "No more calls" Let these banks find another way to do business. Is that so hard? The money send in court to fight the no call list could be put to better use. Give to any number of charities that would benefit from it.